

Theatre Projects Manitoba
in association with The University of Manitoba
Department of Theatre and Department of Native Studies present

The Triple Truth

What can a theatre show do in 60 minutes? Reveal the Aboriginal contributions to the growth and prosperity of the continent? Uncover the stories of Native women and their importance to the fur trade? Dispel stereotypes about the Mohawk Skywalkers? How about all three?

This May, Native Earth Performing Arts hits the road with Turtle Gals Performance Ensemble's The Triple Truth playing everywhere from Saugeen First Nation to Moose Factory, Timmins to Sioux Lookout. The history of Indigenous people at work in North America unfolds in 60 minutes of story, song and movement. With humour and poignancy, The Triple Truth dramatizes pre-contact sustainable economies to Columbus, through to the present-day rebuilding of Native economic stability and sovereignty.

The company is dipping into Manitoba for one public performance only! On May 30th, The Turtle Gals Performance Ensemble will perform The Triple Truth in Winnipeg at Circle of Life Thunderbird House.

"The Triple Truth is such an inspiring experience for Native and non-Native audiences and for us as artists to have the opportunity to share stories and truths in such a fun way is such a blessing," says co-founder of Turtle Gals Performance Ensemble, Michelle St. John.

Performance and Design Concept by Turtle Gals Performance Ensemble
Produced by Native Earth Performing Arts
Written by Jani Lauzon, Michelle St. John and Monique Mojica
Directed by Yvette Nolan

One Performance Only!

When: 8:00 PM, Friday May 30th, 2008

Where: Circle of Life Thunderbird House, 715 Main Street, Winnipeg

Cost: $5.00 per person

Reservations: call Theatre Projects Manitoba at 989-2400

To book an interview, contact Catherine Hernandez at catherine@nativeearth.ca